UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Defendants.

ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue trial by defendant Troy Hansen (Hansen) (Filing No. 24). Hansen seeks a continuance of the trial currently scheduled for July 26, 2005. Defense counsel represents to the court that counsel for the government has no objection to the extension. Hansen has submitted an affidavit in accordance with paragraph 9 of the progression order whereby Hansen consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted and trial as to both defendants shall be continued.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Hansen's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 24) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for August 29, 2005, before Chief Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between July 7, 2005 and August 29, 2005, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 7th day of July, 2005.
